Headline:
Gradually brightening up, with sunny spells for most later.

Today:
On the cloudy side for a time during the morning, with a little showery rain clearing south. Staying breezy but becoming fine later, with sunny spells developing widely. Perhaps a little cloudier in the far west at times. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Fine but breezy during the evening with clear spells. Becoming cloudier from the northwest later in the night, with some rain possible in places by dawn. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tuesday:
Rather cloudy breezy and damp, with intermittent, mostly light rain and drizzle possible at times. Probably drier overall later in the day, with some limited brighter intervals developing. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
A quiet but rather cloudy spell of weather, with Friday perhaps brightest. Temperatures around average to rather cool, although some mild nights are likely given more extensive cloud cover.
